International Representation in Greenville

International Center of the Upstate

The ICU (www.internationalupstate.com) offers many services to internationals designed to integrate cultures and help them get involved in the community.

- Language classes are offered in French, German, Italian, Spanish, Chinese, and English as a second language.
- The ICU provides country contacts in the Greenville area for over 20 different countries around the globe.
- Personal assistance is provided to newcomers through the Ambassadors Program. Help is offered in all aspects of establishing a life in Greenville, from school registration, choosing a doctor, to finding recreational activities for children.

- The Women’s Club has monthly meetings with topics ranging from health, to children, to politics. They also conduct day trips around Greenville and organize benefit events.
- Other activities at the ICU include films, lectures, seminars, children’s activities, and publication of a monthly newsletter.

Support Organizations

The Upstate offers many organizations to help incorporate internationals into local culture.

- The Alliance Française de Piedmont encourages friendship and cultural exchanges among Americans and native French speakers. The Alliance is part of the 145-chapter network across the United States, as well as the larger global network.
- Many international associations are located in the Greenville area including:

The Greenville Chinese Association

German-American Club of Greenville and German-American Chamber of Commerce

Italian-American Club of Greater Greenville

Japan America Association of SC

SC Association of Colombian Professionals

Swiss American Society of the Piedmont

India Association of Greater Greenville
