CABINET MANUFACTURER ANNOUNCES NEW LOCATION

(Greer, South Carolina) The Greer Development Corporation and the Greenville Area Development Corporation announced the new location of Stenibac Cabinet Works in Greenville County. This new company will primarily manufacture classic cabinetry and also provide high quality millwork and fine finishing for a variety of custom products for both the commercial and residential markets. The company will occupy two buildings totaling over 35,000 square feet at 3275 Brushy Creek Road in the City of Greer. Since the start of 2004, the company has hired 10 employees. They plan to hire an additional four by the end of the year. Plans are for solid growth over the next five years.

“Starting a small business in the Greer area has been a rewarding experience. Our products and services are a good fit for this fast growing market of Upstate South Carolina,” said Brent Davis, President of Stenibac Cabinet Works. “Having moved here from Ohio, we saw many advantages of doing business in South Carolina. Some of the top reasons include a great location, a pro-business environment focused on helping small business, a great quality of life, and the availability of a skilled workforce. We are happy with our decision.”

“On behalf of the Greer Development Corporation I want to let Stenibac Cabinet Works know how excited we are with their decision to begin operations in our community,” commented Larry Wilson, Chairman of the Greer Development Corporation. “The Greer area of Greenville County is experiencing tremendous growth due in large part because of small businesses like Stenibac Cabinet Works. I wish them great success in their future endeavors here in the Greer community.”

Brent Clinkscale, Chairman, Greenville Area Development Corporation added, “I welcome Stenibac Cabinet Works to Greenville County. This announcement is a fine example of how Greenville County provides an excellent opportunity for small companies across a wide variety of business sectors. I wish them much success in the years to come.”
