InvestiNet expanding its existing Greenville County, SC operations

Company bringing approximately 85 new jobs to Greenville

GREENVILLE, S.C. – March 5, 2019 – InvestiNet, a full-service account receivables management firm, today announced plans to expand its existing operations in Greenville County. The company's expected $2.1 million investment is projected to create approximately 85 new jobs over a five-year period.

Founded in 2011, InvestiNet features an unmatched investigation and legal enforcement network to optimize clients' credit receivables, offering risk mitigation, asset investigation and performance management. Striving to provide clients with customized, industry-leading recovery solutions for their inventory, InvestiNet's focus on strategy and technology enables the company to quickly adapt to changing market conditions.

In addition, InvestiNet's company culture focuses on volunteering and charity. As examples, in 2018, InvestiNet employees spent approximately 1,100 hours building a new training facility for Homes of Hope and also participated in Meals on Wheels meal delivery during employee lunch breaks.

The company plans to relocate its new office operations to 904 Pinckney Street in Greenville, S.C., and is projected to relocate there during 2019. As it grows, the company will be hiring for various new positions, and interested applicants should visit the company's website for more information.

QUOTES

"InvestiNet appreciates the support of the State of South Carolina and Greenville County.
